7 - Safety

- Safety Shows Constant Progress on Concession Motorway

Safety figures for 2014 are characterized by a decrease in the number of deaths (142 deaths versus 169 in 2013).

Over the last 10 years, the number of people killed on the network has been cut in half, and over the last 30 years, the risk of being killed has been cut in seven if we take into account the increase in traffic.

Between 2000 and 2014, the number of people killed on the roads has been divided by 3 approximately. It is estimated that 2/3 of such a decrease result from a drop in speed limit violations following the implementation of the automated speed control/fines program, the remaining 1/3 resulting from the initiatives taken by roadway companies.

The rate of motorists driving at speeds greater than 130 km/hr is 27 % and the rate of vehicles driving at speed over than 150km/hr remains stable with 2% in 2014.

Motorway companies have continued their driver-targeted awareness campaigns promoting the risks associated with sleepiness at the wheel, which remains the leading cause of accidents on the network in general.

Number of accidents caused by wrong way driving has increased. In 2014, French toll operators have made a specific focus with an awareness campaign with a common message developed nationwide on the 107.7 dedicated motorway radio.
