

Jean MESQUI

Jean Mesqui serves as ASECAP Second Vice President for the period 2017-2018.

Jean Mesqui is Graduate of the French École Polytechnique, of the French École des Ponts-et-Chaussées (university-level College for civil engineering) and have a Ph.D. in History.

From 1975 to 1988, he took several positions within the Ministry of Equipment and transportation: In 1989, he joined the toll road sector as Executive Director of SAPN (French Concessionaire Company /Société des Autoroutes Paris-Normandie. He became in 1997, member of the Board, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

Since 2001, he is Executive Director of ASFA (Association Professionnelle des Sociétés Françaises concessionnaires d'Autoroutes et d'ouvrages à péage / Association of French concessionaire companies).

He was President of ASECAP (European Organization gathering the toll road operators) and Chairman of ERTICO Board (organization gathering private and public companies for the development of ITS). He is a board member of IBTTA (Association gathering the toll road operators' worldwide).