

Bruno de la Fuente is Bachelor of Business Science by the Universidad Complutense of Madrid and Master in Business Administration by the Instituto de Empresa.

1999 - 2010

ASETA (Spanish Association of Concessionaires Companies Highways, Tunnels, Bridges and Toll Road) - Management Assistant, leading the coordination of various committees of the Association as the Electronic Toll Collection Interoperability and Marketing.

2010 – 2014

ASETA - General Manager

He was involved in the definition, implementation and monitoring of the electronic toll collection Spanish ViaT system and he participated in different European projects of toll interoperability as CESARE, PISTA or RCI.

2014 – Present

SEOPAN (Association of Infrastructure Contractors and Concessionaires) – Director of Construction, Concessions and Water Technologies

Is member of the ATC (Spanish Technical Road Association), AEC (Spanish Road Association) and ITS Spain's Boards of Directors, member of the IBTTA (Global toll industry association) Technology Committee, Chairman of the Standing Committee of the ASECAP COPER I and participates in standardization committees 159-199 of AENOR (Spanish Standardization Body). He is member of the AEC's magazine editorial board and of the Committees SIGA and TRAFFIC in IFEMA (Trade Fair Institution of Madrid).

He is also member of the Spanish Entrepreneur Organization (CEOE) General Assembly. Within this organization he is member of the Infrastructure and Urban Development Commission, Transport and Logistics Council and Reform and Rehabilitation Committee.